AUTHOR INDEX

Alva, Juan, book review: The development of American gastroenterology, JB Kirsner 227
Anderson, Banks, Dedicated ophthalmic research 33
Anderson, Page, Report of the NCMS Children's Special Health Services Long-Range Planning Task Force 376
Anscher, Mitchell S, Radiotherapy for non-melanoma skin cancer: dispelling the myths 122
Atteberry, Linda R, Neither shall they learn war any more: health considerations for Desert Storm veterans 453
Bachus, Kevin, book review: The couple's guide to fertility, GS Berger, M Goldstein and M Fuerst 530
Banton, Debra L, The financial impact of the high technology newborn 97
Barrett, George C, Death with dignity: autonomy acknowledged = opportunity created 62
Bast, Robert C, Insurance coverage of screening mammography and Pap smears: the directors of North Carolina's university-based cancer centers speak out 496
Benbow, Edward P, Polio epidemic 276
Benson, Nicholas, North Carolina Pediatric EMS: past, present and future challenges 160
Bertrand, Margaret, Health concerns of female patients: politics or apathy? 477
Blackley, William J, Examination without interview: learning about the physical examination as a diagnostic tool 307
Bloomfield, Robert L, Working together: PA/MD bonding—a duet, not a duel 335
Bobbitt, Julian D, Death with dignity: advance directives remove legal uncertainty 65
Boggs, Kathleen Underman, Extracorporeal membrane oxygenation treatment: one-year outcomes for North Carolina infants 423
Bowes, Watson A, Jr, The obfuscation continues: severe preeclampsia versus thrombotic thrombocytopenic purpura 126
Brechtelsbauer, P Bradley, The North Carolina Medical Society - medical student section: medical students getting involved 223
Brown, Matthew, Worrisome rash in an undergraduate 303
Brownig, Iley B, The financial impact of the high technology newborn 97
Burke, William A, The red imported fire ant (Solenopsis invicta): a problem in North Carolina 153
Capizzi, Robert L, Insurance coverage of screening mammography and Pap smears: the directors of North Carolina's university-based cancer centers speak out 496
Cegielski, J Peter, Sarcoidosis presenting as large pulmonary nodules 297
Chandler, ET, The high cost of failure: prisoners with and without HIV infection 255
Christakos, Arthur C, Infant mortality in North Carolina 371
Claesson, Margareta, I live by the color of thin plastic strips: managing a case of hard-to-control diabetes 571
Clark, Robert E, Radiotherapy for non-melanoma skin cancer: dispelling the myths 122
Cohen, Arthur R, All that wheezes is not asthma 10
Cook, Joseph, Extracorporeal membrane oxygenation for newborn infants with persistent pulmonary hypertension 416
Cooper, M Robert, The development of a comprehensive cancer center: a concerted effort spearheaded by Charles L Spurr, MD 245
Cowan, Arnette, Men and chronic disease: reducing the risk through nutrition 381
Cromer, Shelia, Adolescent pregnancy 494
Croom, Robert D III, The importance of intra-abdominal laparoscopic examination during laparoscopic cholecystectomy 545
Dameron, Thomas B, Jr., The Wake County medical community realizes their dream of a center for health education 623
Davidson, Evelyne M, A case of leukemia due to HTLV-1: a virus of regional significance 17
Dunn, Kathleen Anne, Lightning fatalities in North Carolina, 1972-1988 281
Dyer, Raymond B, Nonsurgical fallopian tube recanalization for treatment of infertility 491
Dykers, John R, Chaos, alcoholism, and DWI 394
Edell, Dean S, The financial impact of the high technology newborn 97
Egan, Thomas M, Lung transplantation at UNC: the first year 325
Elders, M Jocelyn, Adolescent health issues: what is our role? 214
Esinhart, James Douglas, Lightning fatalities in North Carolina, 1972-1988 281
Faber, Kenneth, book review: The couple's guide to fertility, GS Berger, M Goldstein and M Fuerst 530
Felts, John H, The years after fifty: the Bowman Gray School of Medicine 450
Ferree, Carolyn R, Breast preservation: where are we? 512
Book review: Medical school admissions: the insider's guide, JA Zebala, DB Jones 227
Fitz, J Gregory, Hepatitis C: a new virus for an old disease 4
Fondren, Lise K, Tort reform and access to obstetrical care: the proposed NC Birth Impairment Fund 89
Forrest, Terry, Thirty-seven-year follow-up of an infant born with severe renal tubular acidosis: a tribute to the care and training of Bailey Webb, PhD, MD 185
Fortney, Judith A, Political constraints on contraceptive development in the United States 484
Fox, Jonathan C, Alcohol deficiency, stress hormones and bad acidosis: aka AKA 69
Frazier, Claude, A woman's sudden allergy to all foods: the distilled water solution 340
Fulkerson, William J, Jr, Sarcoidosis presenting as large pulmonary nodules 297
Gaiser, JE, Rural outreach breast cancer detection program: a demographic report 520
Gauthier, Candace Cummins, HIV testing, informed consent, and confidentiality 558
Goetzl, Ugo, book review: Epilepsy: current approaches to diagnosis and treatment, DB Smith (Ed) 338
Graham, John B, The halcyon days of youth, Part II: the second year at the

"new" UNC Medical School 44
Alien corn in the "Big Apple" 612
Gravatt, Andrea, The difficulty of deciding why children die: a review and some recommendations 576
Greene, Eleanor Elaine Wilson, Adolescent pregnancy 494
Greven, Kathryn M, Breast preservation: where are we? 512
Gutman, Robert A, Thirty-seven-year follow-up of an infant born with severe renal tubular acidosis: a tribute to the care and training of Bailey Webb, PhD, MD 185
Book review: Practical pointers for the physician practicing primary care, Richard T. James, Jr. (Ed) 626
Hallock, James A, Primary care: the unmet national imperative 331
Halperin, Edward C, Suspicionless drug testing of physicians 131
Book review: Practical medical halachah, F Rosner, M Tendler 339
Book review: When a family gets diabetes: to be illustrated by children and adults, M Heegaard and C Ternard 438
Book review: The higher ground: biomedical ethics and the physician executive, Donald H. Hofreuter (Ed) 627
Book review: Guidebook for medical society grievance committees and disciplinary committees, General Council, American Medical Association 627
Hamilton, James P, Extracorporeal membrane oxygenation for newborn infants with persistent pulmonary hypertension 416
Hansen, Alfred R, The optimum use of laboratory tests in the surgical patient 36
Haynes, Barton F, The Duke University Arthritis Center 190
Hendricks, William M, Alopecia areata 443
Nickel Allergy 445
Wrinkles 574
Hennington, Mark H, The importance of intra-abdominal laparoscopic examination during laparoscopic cholecystectomy 545
Herbst, Charles A Jr, The importance of intra-abdominal laparoscopic examination during laparoscopic cholecystectomy 545
Herman-Giddens, Marcia E, Underrecording of child abuse and neglect fatalities in North Carolina 634
Hickey, Docia E, Extracorporeal membrane oxygenation for newborn infants with persistent pulmonary hypertension 416
Higginbotham, Michael B, From HIRMIT to the Cape May lighthouse: revascularization reconsidered in very high risk patients at the Duke Heart Center 618
Hollingsworth, William, Snapshots from a chief resident 605
Jaffers, William, Critical incident stress debriefing for emergency service presonnel in North Carolina 641
Jones, Robert H, From HIRMIT to the Cape May lighthouse: revascularization reconsidered in very high risk patients at the Duke Heart Center 618
Kavanagh, Brian, Burkitt's lymphoma 141
Kendrick, S Bryant, Jr, "Reach to my complaining": patients as storytellers 313
King, Stephen C, Wilms' tumor 74
Koruda, Mark J, The importance of intra-abdominal laparoscopic examination during laparoscopic cholecystectomy 545
Kremer, Barbara L Harris, Simple observations 460
Kremers, Scott A, All that wheezes is not asthma 10
Krucoff, Mitchell W, From HIRMIT to the Cape May lighthouse: revascularization reconsidered in very high risk patients at the Duke Heart Center 618
Kutcher, Mark J, Oral considerations for the cancer patient 549
Langley, Ricky Lee, Lightning fatalities in North Carolina, 1972-1988 281
Levine, Ronald H, Conjoint report to the NCMS and the NC Commission for Health Services 149
Linfors, Eugene W, The Medicare problem 116
Lockhart, Peter B, Oral considerations for the cancer patient 549
Mack, Ronald B, Breath mints for the dragon: Lindane toxicity 76
Which one is Hardy? Ibuprofen overdose 203
Che gelida manina: fentanyl intoxication 386
Achilles and his evil squeeze: colchicine poisoning 581
Mahan, Colleen, Understanding Medicare 567
Martin, Tracy J, Cocaine-induced mesenteric ischemia 429
Maxted, George H, Examination without interview: learning about the physical examination as a diagnostic tool 307
McLellan, M Faith, "It could not have been done better in Philadelphia, Paris, or anywhere else": The first fifty years of anesthesia in North Carolina (1846-1896) 399
Meares, Connie Hall, book review: By whose hand? JE Newell 530
Meyerdierks, Elizabeth M, Upper extremity disorders commonly seen in women 501
Meymandi, Assad, Anxiety and depression 81
Mill, Michael R, Lung transplantation at UNC: the first year 325
Moffitt, Catharine, Infant mortality in Durham County in 1989 100
Morayati, Sam J, Osteoporosis—a forgotten disease 527
Morton, Duncan, Jr, Extracorporeal membrane oxygenation for newborn infants with persistent pulmonary hypertension 416
Muakkassa, Farid F, The optimum use of laboratory tests in the surgical patient 36
Nebel, William A, book review: Green's Gynecology: essentials of clinical practice, 4th ed DL Clarke-Pearson, MY Dawood 142
Neelon, Francis A, Examination without interview: learning about the physical examination as a diagnostic tool 307
The future of the Journal 361
Steady thoughts: reflections of Eugene Stead in action 609
Nesbitt, Teresa, Reflections on MS 85
North Carolina Medical Society, Mental illness: mind and body 27
Adolescent pregnancy 145
Infant mortality 265
Nutrition and women 321
Medicare—the basics 505
Medicare: benefits and supplemental coverage 629
Oddone, Eugene Z, Worrisome rash in an undergraduate 303
Intravenous drug use fools us again: the importance of open lung biopsy in evaluating a patient with progressive interstitial lung disease presenting with pneumothorax 357
Oller, Dale W, A new approach to military graduate medical education programs 458
Pact, Virginia W, book review: Neurologic emergencies: recognition and management, M Salcman 437
Pagano, Joseph S, Insurance coverage of screening mammography and Pap smears: the directors of North Carolina's University-based cancer centers speak out 496
Peter, Mary Ann, A nurse's view of the nursing shortage 25
Phillips, Harry R, From HIRMIT to the

Cape May lighthouse: revascularization reconsidered in very high risk patients at the Duke Heart Center 618
Pike, Arlene M, The Wake County medical community realizes their dream of a center for health education 623
Potts, D Malcolm, Political constraints on contraceptive development in the United States 484
Prichard, Robert W, Medicine at Wake Forest University, 1941-1991 447
Rafkal, SM, Rural outreach breast cancer detection program: a demographic report 520
Rathbun, Mary Anne, Extracorporeal membrane oxygenation for newborn infants with persistent pulmonary hypertension 416
Reeves, Gerald, From HIRMIT to the Cape May lighthouse: revascularization reconsidered in very high risk patients at the Duke Heart Center 618
Regan, Sally W, Nonsurgical fallopian tube recanalization for treatment of infertility 491
Richter, Conrad B, The debate over animal rights 137
Ricketts, Thomas C, Tort reform and access to obstetrical care: the proposed NC Birth Impairment Fund 89
Ridky, Jill, A new approach to military graduate medical education programs 458
Roberts, Kenneth B, Ewing's Sarcoma 319
Rozear, Marvin P, Historical note: North Carolina's first hospital 271
Runge, Jeffrey W, Out-of-hospital do not resuscitate orders in North Carolina 433
Rutledge, Robert, The optimum use of laboratory tests in the surgical patient 36
Sanfilippo, Fred, The distribution of organs for transplantation: what is fair and practical? 367
Sawchak, Sharon T, From HIRMIT to the Cape May lighthouse: revascularization reconsidered in very high risk patients at the Duke Heart Center 618
Scarantino, CW, Rural outreach breast cancer detection program: a demographic report 520
Schwartz, Robert P, Report of the NCMS Children's Special Health Services Long-Range Planning Task Force 376
Sexton, Daniel J, Hospital infection control, seat belts and the national debt 250
Aphorisms of the month: Experience 231
New therapies and therapeutic evangelists 248
Widsom 320
Vision, Experience, learning, and ignorance 360
Experience, doubt, and wisdom 426
Physicians 596
Shenoy, Vittal B, All that wheezes is not asthma 10
Shingleton, E Daniel, "From early childhood, I understood that the health of the State came first in our household": Dr Thomas F Wood and the North Carolina State Board of Health 167
Shuford, Cynthia G, The difficulty of deciding why children die: a review and some recommendations 576
Smith, Jason B, Political constraints on contraceptive development in the United States 484
Spudis, Edward V, Futility: newer guidelines to endorse with caution 390
Stack, Richard S, From HIRMIT to the Cape May lighthouse: revascularization reconsidered in very high risk patients at the Duke Heart Center 618
Stoodt, Georjean, Organ transplantation in North Carolina: a response to the Inspector General's report 363
Taylor, Frederick H, All that wheezes is not asthma 10
Thel, Mark C, Kikuchi's disease: a benign disease of unknown etiology 261
Thomas, Colin G, The optimum use of laboratory tests in the surgical patient 36
Thomas, David R, "The brown bag" and other approaches to decreasing polypharmacy in the elderly 565
Thorp, John M, Jr, The obfuscation continues: severe preeclampsia versus thrombotic thrombocytopenic purpura 126
Ungaro, Peter C, A case of leukemia due to HTLV-1: a virus of regional significance 17
Vanderberry, Robert C, Hats off to the recovering docs 645
Vanderheide, Richard S, Kikuchi's disease: a benign disease of unknown etiology 261
Van Trigt, Peter, From HIRMIT to the Cape May lighthouse: revascularization reconsidered in very high risk patients at the Duke Heart Center 618
Vaughn, Donald E, Out-of-hospital do not resuscitate orders in North Carolina 433
Vernon, Mary, Asolescent childbearing 209
Visser, Valya E, Extracorporeal membrane oxygenation for newborn infants with persistent pulmonary hypertension 416
Extracorporeal membrane oxygenation treatment: one-year outcomes for North Carolina infants 423
Wall, Thomas C, From HIRMIT to the Cape May lighthouse: revascularization reconsidered in very high risk patients at the Duke Heart Center 618
Waters, Jackie, Critical incident stress debriefing for emergency service presonnel in North Carolina 641
Watterson, Michael K, Tort reform and access to Obstetrical care: the proposed NC Birth Impairment Fund 89
Weaver, James P, Affirming physicians' professionalism against the destructive influence of private third party relations: Durham-Orange County resolutions 587
Webb, Bailey, Infant mortality in Durham County in 1989 100
Wells, Steven R, The obfuscation continues: severe preeclampsia versus thrombotic thrombocytopenic purpura 126
Westerman, Jan, Lung transplantation at UNC: the first year 325
Whitcomb, David C, Alcohol deficiency, stress hormones and bad acidosis: aka AKA 69
White, Marion S, Organ transplantation in North Carolina: a response to the Inspector General's report 363
Wilcox, Benson R, Lung transplantation at UNC: the first year 325
Wiley, Albert L Jr, Insurance coverage of screening mammography and Pap smears: the directors of North Carolina's University-based cancer centers speak out 496
Williford, Margared E, Mammography: evaluation following breast augmentation 515
Winfield, John B, The University of North Carolina Arthritis Center 197
Worsham, Linda, Good nutrition can make the difference for your children 439
Yohay, Daniel A, Intravenous drug use fools us again: the importance of open lung biopsy in evaluating a patient with progressive interstitial lung disease presenting with pneumothorax 357
Young, Daniel T, Physicians and nuclear war 20
Zagoria, Ronald J, Nonsurgical fallopian tube recanalization for treatment of infertility 491
Zollinger, Richard W, All that wheezes is not asthma 10

Adolescent health, 145, 209, 214, 494
Adolescent pregnancy, 145, 209, 214, 494
Alcoholic ketoacidosis, 69
Alcoholism and DWI, 394
Alice Aycock Poe Center for Health Education, 623
Allergy, 340
  Nickel, 445
Alopecia areata, 443
Anesthesia, history in NC, 399
Animal rights, 137
Anxiety, 81
Asthma, 10
Bowman Gray School of Medicine
  1941-1991, 447
  Cancer Center, 245
  future, 450
Breast cancer and breast preservation, 512 rural detection program, 520
Burkitt's lymphoma, 141
Cancer
  breast, 512, 520
  oral considerations, 549
  screening, in women, 496
  skin, non-melanoma, 122
Child abuse and neglect, fatalities from, 576, 634
Child death reporting systems, 576, 634
Children's Special Health Services, 376
Chronic disease in men, 381
Cocaine-induced mesenteric ischemia, 429
Colchicine poisoning, 581
Contraceptive development, 484
Critical incident stress debriefing, 641
Death with dignity, 62, 65
Depression, 81
Diabetes, management, 571
Do not resuscitate orders, 433
Drug testing of physicians, 131
Duke University Arthritis Center, 190
Ewing's sarcoma, 319
Extracorporeal membrane oxygenation, 416, 423
Fallopian tube recanalization, nonsurgical, 491
Fentanyl intoxication, 386
Fire ant, red imported, 153
Futility, 390
Graham, John Borden, M.D., 44, 612
Hepatitis C, 4
HIV infection
  in prisoners, 255
  testing and informed consent, 558
Hospital infection control, 250
Ibuprofen overdose, 203
Infant mortality, 265, 371
  in Durham County in 1989, 100
  reporting systems in NC, 576, 634
Kikuchi's disease, 261
Laboratory tests, 36
Laparoscopic examination, 545
Leukemia, due to HTLV-1, 17
Lightening fatalities, 281
Lindane toxicity, 76
Lung transplantation, 325
Mammography, insurance coverage, 496
Medicare, 116, 505, 567
Meningococcal meningitis, 303
Mental illness, 27
Mesenteric ischemia, 429
Military graduate medical education, 458
North Carolina Birth Impairment Fund, 89
North Carolina Medical Society medical student section, 223
  Children's Special Health Services, 376
North Carolina Medical Journal, future of, 361
North Carolina State Board of Health, history, 167
Nursing shortage, 25
Nutrition and children, 439
  and men, 381
  and women, 321
Open lung biopsy, 357
Ophthalmic research, 33
Organ transplantation in NC, 363, 367
Osteoporosis, 527
Intravenous drug use, 357
Pap smear, insurance coverage, 496
Patient as storyteller, 313
Pediatric emergency medical services, 160
Physical examination, 307
Physician assistants, 335
Physicians
  and nuclear war, 20
  in recovery, 645
  suspicionless drug testing of, 131
Pneumothorax, 357
Polio, 276
Polypharmacy in elderly, 565
Preeclampsia, 126
Primary care, 331
Prison medicine, 255
Pulmonary hypertension in newborns, 416
Renal tubular acidosis, 185
Revascularization, 618
Sarcoidosis, 297
Skin cancer, non-melanoma, 122
Stead, Eugene A., M.D., 604, 605, 609
Third-party relations, 587
Thrombotic thrombocytopenic purpura, 126
Tort reform, and access to care, 89
University of North Carolina
  Arthritis Center, 197
  lung transplantation, 325
  School of Medicine, 44
United States Marine Hospital, 271
Upper extremity disorders, in women, 501
Veterans's health, 458
Wilms' tumor, 74
Women's health, 477
  breast health, 512, 515, 520
  cancer screening, 496
  contraception, 484
  fertility, 491
  pregnancy, adolescent, 145, 209, 214, 494 upper extremity disorders, 501
Wrinkles, 574